PROPOSALS

FOR ESTABLISHING

A Land-Office in the City of Albany.

WHEREAS many gentlemen reſiding at New-York, and elſewhere, are poſſeſſors of conſiderable tracts of land in the county of Albany, which probably they may be inclined to ſell or let; and whereas perſons intending to purchaſe or become tenants, are frequently at a loſs to diſcover the proprietors of ſuch tracts which they would chooſe to ſettle upon; and often after having obtained the neceſſary information, they find it very inconvenient and expenſive to make a perſonal application: The ſubſcribers therefore propoſe to open a LAND-OFFICE in the city of Albany, on the following plan, which if properly encouraged, will be of general utility to the public, and produce an emolument to the undertakers adequate to their aſſiduity.

CONDITIONS.

I. That every proprietor of lands in the county of Albany, who may have occaſion to employ them, will be pleaſed to furniſh a map of the lands, and inſtructions containing the conditions of ſale, or terms on which they will leaſe.

II. In caſe of ſales, they will negotiate the whole at the rate of one per cent. provided they have the drawing of the deeds, or two per cent. if the deeds are drawn by others: Their charge for drawing a leaſe, will be One Pound, and as much for a mortgage; to be paid as the parties ſhall agree.

III. They will have all mortgages recorded, charging the mortgage with the clerk's fee only.

IV. In leting lands they expect no other reward than the profits ariſing from drawing the leaſes; which they will execute at One Pound for the leaſe, and as much for the counterpart.

V. Lands ſold or let, thro' their agency, and which require to be ſurveyed by them, they will engage to perform it in the moſt exact manner, and with all poſſible diſpatch; the expence to be paid either by the grantor or grantee, as ſhall be agreed upon: And in order to prevent any diſputes that may ariſe concerning the expence, they expect to be allowed for the ſurveyor, two chain bearers, a marker and ſlag carrier, Two Pounds per day, they finding themſelves in every thing.

VI. That any perſon intending to purchaſe, or rent lands, may have the privilege to examine their books and maps, paying Two Shillings for every hour's examination.

VII. Original plans will be returned as ſoon as copies can be taken of them, and the ſubſcribers will do every thing in their power to prevent waſtes on the lands of which they have the ſelling or leting.

They hope they may be allowed to declare, that they are competent to the buſineſs; that they underſtand the art of ſurveying both in theory and practice; that they are capable of mathematically demonſtrating whether a ſurvey has been truly made or not, and to diſcover the contents by the pen, only. They aſſure every gentleman who ſhall be pleaſed to employ them, that they are determined to act with the ſtricteſt impartiality and integrity, and by their aſſiduous application to the general buſineſs of the office, endeavour to render this inſtitution important and beneficial to the public. 6 9

LONDON, September 17.

BY the laſt Letters from Bengal, dated in February 1771, it appears they were under great Apprehenſions of a ſecond Famine, Rice being then at from 13 to 14 Seers per Rupee.—A Gentleman gives the following Account of the firſt Famine in a Letter to his Friend.

"As ſoon as the Dryneſs of the Seaſon foretold the approaching Dearneſs of Rice, our Gentlemen in the Company's Service, particularly thoſe at the Subordinates, whoſe Stations gave them the beſt Opportunities, were as early as poſſible in buying up all they could lay hold of. When the Effects of the Scarcity became more and more ſenſible, the Natives complained to the Nabob at Muxadavad that the Engliſh had engroſſed all the Rice, particularly in the Bahar and Purnea Provinces. This Complaint was laid before the Preſident and Council by the Nabob's Miniſter who reſides in Calcutta; but the Intereſt of the Gentlemen concerned was too powerful at the board; ſo that the complaint was only laughed at and thrown out. Our Gentlemen in many Places purchaſed the Rice at 120 and 140 Seers for a Rupee, which they afterwards ſold for 13 Seers for a Rupee to the Black Merchants; ſo that the Perſons principally concerned have made great Fortunes by it; and one of our Writers at the Durbar who was intereſted therein, not eſteemed to be worth a Thouſand Rupees laſt Year, has ſent down, as it is ſaid, 60 000l. Sterling to be remitted home this Year. The Black Merchants who had made their Groſs Purchaſes from our Gentlemen, brought down great Quantities of their Rice, and depoſited it in the Golahs or Granaries about Calcutta, where, very unfortunately for the poor Inhabitants, great Part of it was deſtroyed by moſt terrible Fires, which we had in the Months of April and May, before which Time the Engliſh had ſold off all they had on hand. The Effects of the Scarcity continuing to become daily more alarming, our Governor and Council bethought themſelves, though by much too late, to ſend into the interior Parts of the Country to purchaſe what Rice they could on the Company's Account, fixed the Price of Sales in Calcutta at 16 Seers for a Rupee, and ſeized all they could upon the Rivers. The Black Merchants remonſtrated, that the Charges of bringing the Rice down the Country, together with the high Intereſt which they paid the Shroffs or Bankers for raiſing the Money, and other Contingencies, ran ſo exceſſively high, that they ſhould, upon thoſe Terms, be Loſers by their Purchaſes; upon which, by an Order of Council, Seapoys were ſtationed at their Golahs to prevent the delivering any Rice without a Permit or Order; and notwithſtanding all the Orders for purchaſing up the Country on the Company's Account, ſo bare were the Company's Granaries here, that the Council were obliged to ſend and take from the Merchants' Golahs a few Maunds to the Bazars to ſell, for the Support of the Inhabitants. The Nabob and ſeveral of the great Men of the Country at Muxadavad diſtributed Rice to the Poor gratis, until their Stocks began to fail, when thoſe Donations were withdrawn, which brought many Thouſand down to Calcutta in hopes of finding Relief amongſt us. By the Time the Famine had been about a Fortnight over the Land, we were greatly affected at Calcutta, many Thouſands falling daily in the Fields, whoſe Bodies, mangled by Dogs, Jackalls and Vultures, in that hot Seaſon (when at beſt the Air is very infectious) made us dread the Conſequences of a Plague. We had 100 People employed upon the Cutcherry Liſt on the Company's Account with Dooly, Sledges and Bearers to carry the Dead and throw them into the River Ganges. I have counted from my Bedchamber Window in the Morning when I get up, forty dead Bodies lying within twenty Yards of the Wall, beſides many Hundreds lying in the Agonies of Death for Want, bending double with their Stomachs quite cloſe contracted to their Back-bones. I have ſent my Servant to deſire thoſe who had Strength to remove farther off, whilſt the poor Creatures, looking up with Arms extended, have cried out, Baba! Baba! My Father! My Father! This Affliction comes from the Hands of your Countrymen, and I am come here to die, if it pleaſes God, in your Preſence. I cannot move; do what you will with me.——In the Month of June our Condition was ſtill worſe, only 5 Seers of Rice to be had in the Bazar for a Rupee, and that very bad, which when bought muſt be carried home ſecretly to avoid being plundered by the famiſhed Multitude on the Road. One could not paſs along the Streets without ſeeing Multitudes in their laſt Agonies, crying out as you paſſed, My God! My God! have Mercy upon me, I am ſtarving; whilſt on the other Sides Numbers of Dead were ſeen with Dogs, Jackalls, Hogs, Vultures, and other Birds of Prey feeding on their Carcaſes. It was remarked by the Natives, that greater Numbers of theſe Animals came down at this Time than was ever known, which upon this melancholy Occaſion was of great Service; as the Vultures and other Birds take the Eyes and Inteſtines, whilſt the other Animals gnaw the Feet and Hands; ſo that very little of the Body remained for the Cutcherry People to carry to the River, notwithſtanding they had very hard work of it. I have obſerved two of them with a Dooly carrying twenty Heads, and the Remains of the Carcaſes that had been left by the Beaſts of Prey, to the River at a Time. At this Time we could not touch Fiſh, the River was ſo full of Carcaſes; and of thoſe who did eat it, many died ſuddenly. Pork, Ducks and Geeſe alſo lived moſtly on Carnage; ſo that our only Meat was Mutton when we could get it, which was very dear, and from the Dryneſs of the Seaſon ſo poor, that a Quarter would not weigh a Pound and a Half. Of this I uſed to make a little Broth, and after I had dined, perhaps there were 100 Poor at the Door waiting for the Remains, which I have often ſent among them cut up into little Pieces; ſo that as many as could might partake of it; and after one had ſucked the Bones quite dry, and thrown them away, I have ſeen another take them up, Sand and all upon them, and do the ſame, and ſo by a third, and ſo on. In the Month of Auguſt we had a very alarming Phenomenon appeared of a large black Cloud at a Diſtance in the Air, which ſometimes obſcured the Sun, and ſeemed to extend all over and about Calcutta. The hotter the Day proved, the lower this Cloud ſeemed to deſcend, and for three Days it cauſed great Speculation. The Bramins pretended that this Phenomenon, which was a Cloud of Inſects, ſhould make its Appearance three Times, and if ever they deſcended to the Earth, the Country would be de- ſtroyed by ſome untimely Misfortune. They ſay that about 150 Years ago they had ſuch another bad Time, when the Ground was burnt up for want of Rain; this is the ſecond Time of this Phenomenon's appearing, and that they came much lower than is recorded of the former. On the 3d Day, the Weather being very hot and cloudy, with much Rain, we could perceive them with the naked Eye, hearing a continual Buzzing.

"About One o'Clock they were ſo low as 30 Feet from the Ground, when we ſaw them diſtinctly to be a great Number of large Inſects, about the Size of a Horſe-ſtinger, with a long red Body, long Wings, and a large Head and Eyes, keeping cloſe together like a Swarm of Bees, ſeemingly flying quite on a Line. I did not hear of any that were caught, as the Country People were much frightened at the Prognoſtications of the Bramins. Whilſt it rained, they continued in one Poſition for near a Quarter of an Hour; they then roſe five or ſix Feet at once, and in a little Time deſcended as much, until a ſtrong North Weſt Wind came and blowed for two Days ſucceſſively, when they gradually aſcended in the ſame Manner, but more precipitately until next Morning when the Air was quite clear. It was very remarkable that for ſome Days before the Appearance of this Phenomenon, that Toads, Frogs, and Inſects which in Numbers innumerable always make a continued Noiſe here, the whole Night, during the Rains diſappeared, and were neither ſeen nor heard except in the River.

"Whilſt the Famine continued News came down privately to Calcutta, that the Nabob was dead, and had died in his Garden of the Small-pox. Many People would not give Credit to the Report, as the Governor and Council pretended they did not know it for three Weeks afterwards, when Mahomed Reza Cawn came down from Muxudavad, and brought with him the young Brother of the deceaſed Nabob, the only male Heir remaining of Meer Jaffier's Family, whom the ſaid Governor and Council in the preſence of ſome of their Friends proclaimed Nabob the very next Day at the Court-Houſe. This Lad is about 14 or 15 Years old, under the Tuterage of Mahomed Reza Cawn, as his Brother was in his Minority. He is of a mild Diſpoſition; and it ſeems the general Opinion of the Country People with whom I have converſed on the Subject, is, that he alſo will ſoon die, either in his Garden or his Seraglio, to make way for Mahomet Reza Cawn."

CONSTANTINOPLE, Auguſt 3.

WE have advice, that Ali Bey having recalled his army from Syria to Egypt, to attack a competitor who had riſen up againſt him, the Ottoman troops had taken the advantage of this circumſtance to attack him in his retreat, and that they entirely defeated him in a battle, in which Chiek Daher, was wounded. By accounts received by a veſſel from Paros to Smyrna, Count Orlow arrived there the 10th ult. with two ſhips and ſix frigates Some ſay he is preparing to make an expedition in Candia; others, that he intends to try a new enterprize in the Morea. It is not without much uneaſineſs, that this admiral was ſeen before Smyrna. The plague only can defend this city from the Ruſſians, who will not like penetrating into it as long as that diſorder, which daily increaſes, continues within the walls. All the foreign Conſuls are obliged to retire into the country. Cara Oſman Oglow, Governor of this city, and Kan Cioban Oglow, live in tents to preſerve them from the contagion. It is remarkable, that the plague makes greater progreſs among the Turks and Jews than among the Greeks. Every family is ordered to bury their own dead, and if any one who dies is without relations or friends, his neigbours are to bury him.

Cadiz, Aug. 28. By a letter from Mogador, in the kingdom of Morocco, dated the 9th of laſt June, we have the following particulars: A man, on the pretence of divine inſpiration, entered Morocco at the head of about 6000 fanatics, armed with clubs, who killed a number of the rich Jews and Moors, and plundered their houſes. The populace began to join in theſe outrages, till the principal inhabitants went in a body to the emperor to implore his protection. The emperor for fear of a general revolt, prudently declined to oppoſe them by force, till the fury of their intoxication ſhould ſubſide. He then preſented himſelf before his people, and purſuaded them that the authors of ſo much miſchief could not poſſibly be inſpired by heaven. He at the ſame time ſurrounded the inſurgents with his troops, of whom ſome have been taken, ſome diſperſed, and ſome are ſtill remaining. The leader of this riot has been put to death; and troops have been diſpatched to reſtore tranquility to the different provinces.

Rome, Aug. 30. After all the enquiry that has been made regarding the ſociety of the Jeſuits, it is not doubted but their affairs will be ſettled in the courſe of next month. There is no appearance that the ſaid ſociety will be ſuppreſſed, but it is aſſured that a great change will be made in the articles of its conſtitution, which to this time have cauſed great altercations, and raiſed diſturbances in ſeveral ſtates.

Venice, Aug. 31. They write from the Levant, that ſix Ruſſian men of war appeared lately in the ſeas of the Morea, and that the Greeks of that country remembering the laſt year's miſery, took refuge in Zante and Cephalonia. Later accounts ſay, that the Ruſſians have at laſt paſſed the Danube in two bodies; one of 80,000 men. and the other of 46,000. If this be true, we ſhall ſoon hear of a bloody action between them and the Grand Vizir's army.

Baſtia, Sept. 2 The Count de Marbeuf's baggage is taken by the banditti, who have lately burnt in the Pieve of Niolo fourſcore thouſand dozen of planks belonging to the French, the mere cutting of which had coſt upwards of 40,000 livres. For this reaſon, all the felling of timber is ſuſpended for the preſent.

Liſbon, Sept. 5. On Thurſday laſt his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter arrived here in good health, in his Brit. Majeſty's Frigate, Venus, Capt. Balfour, attended by the Alarm Frigate, Capt. Jarvis.

His Royal Highneſs was conducted on ſhore by Count Baron, in one of his Faithful Majeſty's barges, and from thence in his Majeſty's coach to a houſe, fitted up by order of his Majeſty, for the uſe of his Royal Highneſs.

Yeſterday his Royal Highneſs left this city, and ſailed for Gibraltar with a very fair wind.

His Royal Highneſs was conducted on board ſhip by M. de Mello, one of the principal ſecretaries of ſtate.

Paris, Sept. 13. On the 4th of this month the Parliament of Bourdeaux was ſuppreſſed, and a new one created in its ſtead.

About the ſame time the old parliament of Toulouſe was diſſolved, and fifty-five of its members ſent into baniſhment. Their ſeats are replaced by new ones.

A certain young lady, ſiſter to a celebrated advocate (we are not told, who) and three other young ladies of like rank, were viſited, on entering the city in a hackney coach, and many pamphlets being found in it, conducted to the Baſtile. A private gentleman alſo, of a good family, has been ſhut up in the ſame fortreſs, for having diſperſed writings relative to the affairs of the parliament.

LONDON.

Sept. 18. Lord North will certainly be created Viſcount Dillington before the next meeting of parliament.

The office of ſecretary of ſtate for Scotland will ſoon be revived, and we hear it is intended for his Grace the Duke of St. Albans.

By a gentleman arrived in town from Bengal, we are informed that a very handſome Yorkſhire girl, who arrived there in 1769, in the character of a female fortune hunter had ſucceeded ſo well, as to captivate a black trader, eſteemed worth 700,000 rupees, who made her his wife, and ſettled his whole fortune upon her.

Sept. 20. By an officer lately arrived in the Endeavour Bark, we are informed, that on the day they ſailed from the Cape of Good Hope, there arrived in that port three French ſhips of the line, bound to the Iſle of France; they had each on board 700 land forces, beſides their complement of ſeamen; and by advices from the Mauritius they had then 12 ſail of the line ready to go to ſea, full manned; beſides this, their fortifications were all in repair, and a good fort and eſtabliſhment on the iſland of Madagaſcar, which in a future war will be of the utmoſt conſequence to all the Eaſt India Company's trade. At the ſame time lay at the Cape, a frigate and four large ſhips, loading with proviſions.

We are told that a ſcheme is drawn up, for applying part of the crown revenues in America toward the conſtruction of a certain number of ſhips of war, and the eſtabliſhing arſenals and dock-yards in the principal maritime provinces on the continent.

A maſter of a veſſel lately arrived from the Weſt Indies, ſays, he ſpoke with nine ſail of Spaniſh men of war, and that the commodore hoiſted out his boat and boarded him, and aſked him, if he knew what Engliſh men of war were at Jamaica, to which he anſwered in the negative. They behaved very civilly.

The order ſent to the Mediterranean to prevent the Engliſh ſhips from ſubmitting to the indignity of being ſearched, does honour to the ſpirit of the preſent adminiſtration.

Private letters from the Hague mention, that the States General have given orders for all the barrier towns belonging to that republick to be conſtantly garriſoned, and all the works put in a poſture of defence.

A correſpondent aſſures us he has received letters from Spain, which mention that it is a general talk there, that the whole force of the court of Madrid will very ſhortly be employed againſt the Ruſſians; if ſo, it is impoſſible that England can long preſerve her neutrality.

They write from Venice, that the ſucceſs of the Ruſſian ſquadron in the Archipelago has been greatly exaggerated; that they have not as yet nor are likely to be able to ſtop the paſſage of the Dardanelles. The Turkiſh commanders (who are in their own ſeas) proving more powerful opponents than the Muſcovites chooſe to own.

We hear from Plymouth, that ſix ſail of large ſhips, ſuppoſed to be French men of war, paſſed by in the night of the 15th of this month.

By a letter received from the Havannah, we hear that the Spaniards have ſixteen ſhips of the line there, beſides 12,000 land forces.

A perſon lately arrived from Madrid ſays, that the King of Spain is taking the moſt effectual method to increaſe his marine, and that the Spaniards, in caſe of a war, will become more formidable than they have for ſome time appeared.

A perſon lately arrived from Cadiz, informs, that no leſs than five veſſels, laden with troops and amunition, have ſailed from thence within theſe two months for the Spaniſh ſettlements.

Sept. 20. There are now in London, ſeveral French Noblemen, whoſe intention is to ſettle here for a conſiderable time, at leaſt till affairs in that kingdom take a different turn from the way they are in at preſent, There is not the leaſt probability, as is ſuſpected, of their being here merely for ſpies, as their Monarch's actions are far from inſpiring them with thoughts to aid and aſſiſt him.

Many people ſeem to think that Lord North has no intention of quitting the high office he now holds in Government; but we are aſſured as a fact, and the aſſertion ſeems to be founded on a probability of truth, that as ſoon as he has raiſed all his indigent relations from obſcurity (and he has for that purpoſe been collecting a liſt of them ever ſince he has been in office) he will then make room for ſomebody elſe. His Lordſhip's liſt, we hear, is almoſt as long as Cadwallader's pedigree; ſo that to complete his intention, it is thought will be a work as great as cleanſing the Augean ſtable; yet he goes on with great ſpirit.

There will be a meeting of the Livery on Monday evening next, at the Halfmoon tavern in Cheapſide, in order to ſupport the intereſt of the Aldermen Townſend and Sawbridge at the enſuing election for Lord Mayor.

Sir Joſeph Mawbey, Bart. is to be ſtruck off the liſt of Borough-Juſtices for daring to aſſiſt in bringing the Marſhal of a certain priſon to puniſhment for firing on his priſoners.

Extract of a letter from Plymouth, dated September 15.

"On Wedneſday laſt arrived here from Portſmouth, in charge of two of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, Mr. Dudley, in order to find out ſome of the perſons concerned in ſetting fire to Portſmouth Dock-yard. Thurſday he was examined before Commiſſioner Rogers; but we do not hear he has been able to point out any of the perſons concerned; and on Friday, as ſoon as the poſt arrived, he was ordered immediately for London, and accordingly ſet out with the two Meſſengers as his companions. —He is well known in thoſe parts, and in February laſt was here as a rider, taking orders for a wholeſale ſhoemaker of Briſtol. Several people went to ſee him, and converſed with him on the ſubject of the fire at Portſmouth; and, from what he ſaid, ſome are apt to believe he knows ſomething of the affair, while others ſuppoſe it to be only a ſcheme to get his debts paid, and to amuſe the nation, until ſome other object takes off their attention."

We hear an affidavit will ſoon appear in public, wherein will be contained very extraordinary matter and information concerning the ſaid fire, and other things, which will much ſurpriſe the public, and perhaps reflect no great honour on the attention, vigilance, and care, of certain Miniſters and peace-makers.

We hear a great Perſonage has ſignified that he will not admit the Sheriffs elect into his preſence, but will always appoint a proxy to receive them.

On Wedneſday night, between one and two o'clock, a dreadful fire broke out in Eaſt-lane, near Bull-ſtairs, Southwark; the tide being low, the engines were for a long time uſeleſs, during which time upwards of twenty five dwelling houſes, beſide warehouſes and ſheds, were reduced to aſhes.

Sept. 23. His excellency the French ambaſſador is not expected to return to England till ſome time in November next.

Orders were diſpatched on Saturday to the ſeveral dock-yards and ſea ports on the coaſt, to levy 6000 ſeamen with all ſpeed for a ſecret expedition.

It is ſaid that ſix ſail of the line will ſhortly be fitted out and compleatly manned, the command of which will be given to an experienced officer, but their deſtination is as yet a ſecret.

It is ſaid that orders are given for a general review of all his Majeſty's marine forces, in their diviſions at Portſmouth, Chatham, and Plymouth.

Advice is certainly received, that the French have erected eight different forts and ſettlements in the Eaſt-Indies, in open defiance of the treaties ſubſiſting between them and our court.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Sept. 17.

"According to the laſt accounts from Vienna, an expreſs lately arrived there from Peterſburgh, with diſpatches of ſuch conſequence as to occaſion three ſucceſſive councils to conſider of them. From hence it is preſumed, that this expreſs brought the final anſwer of the court of Ruſſia, with reſpect to the meaſures propoſed for reſtoring peace between that empire and the Turks.

A dangerous inſurrection, with intent to cut off the King of the Two Sicilies, has lately happened at Palermo in Italy, where that monarch reſided; this is looked on as a very ſerious affair by the Spaniſh court, and will in all likelihood, divert their attention for ſome time, to the domeſtic ſatisfaction of the European powers.

Sept. 26. We have received from reſpectable authority the following intelligence, dated Berlin, Sept. 15, 1771. Mr. du Saudray, the French Charge des Affaires here, has contrived to ſend word to all the principal merchants and Jews of this city, as if he had received letters which informed him of the total defeat on the 29th of July laſt, of the Ruſſian army under the command of Count Rowmainzow, while no body here has the leaſt advice of it. The date of this news alone proves the falſity of it; becauſe from that time one could have had this advice by other channels than that of Mr. du Saudray, and as the letters from Warſaw, of the 31ſt of Auguſt, mention that there had happened nothing as yet between the two armies, but that they were always in expectation to hear of some considerable event.

We hear from Plymouth, that a French frigate has been cruising off the Ram-head for this week past, and that she stands in for land at dark, and disappears at day-break.

Advice has been received that there has been a warm dispute between an English man of war and a French frigate in the Mediterranean; the English Captain demanded the compliment that is usually paid to his Britannic Majesty's ships, which the Frenchman did not choose to comply with, till several shot were fired at him; but the guns were ordered to be pointed in such a manner as they could do no execution. The French Captain declared he should send an account home of the affront done the King his master.

SALEM, Nov. 5.

In the storm last saturday night, a large brigantine, with 210 hogsheads of molasses on board, belonging to Newbury Port, and bound in there from the West Indies, commanded by capt. Choate, in endeavouring to get into Cape-Ann harbour, run upon the rocks in Brace's Cove, and beat all to pieces, so that the cargo, as well as vessel, was entirely lost, but the men were providentially all saved. We hear that Capt. Choate said, that if there had been any light on Eastern Point (the spot where the Cape-Ann Gentlemen were solicitous for having a light-house built, in preference to Thatcher's Island, where one is now erecting), he should undoubtedly have saved his vessel and cargo.

BOSTON, Nov. 11.

We learn from Piscataqua, that on the 26th of Oct. Capt. Keating, of the brig Resolution, entered said vessel at the Custom house there, as from St. Lucia and St. Martins, but did not enter about 100 hogsheads of molasses then on board; in consequence of which, the Collector and Comptroller of that port seized the brig and molasses, and put the officers belonging to the Custom-house in possession, in order to secure them; but on the night of the 29th of the same month, a number of men in disguise, armed with Clubs, went on board the brig and wrested her out of the hands of the officers then on board, turning some of them out of the vessel, and confining others of them in the cabin, and then proceeded to unload and carry away the molasses.—Upon complaint thereof being made to Governor Wentworth, his Excellency, with the advice of his Majesty's Council, has issued a proclamation promising a reward of two hundred dollars to any person who will discover the principal actors in this riotous transaction.

We hear that the master of a vessel who run by Guadaloupe in the hurricane about the middle of September last, saw 17 sail of vessels on shore there.

We are informed by several gentlemen of character lately arrived from London, that the people of all ranks are generally disgusted with the present administration; that three out of four feel for America; and that could it be decided by the people, we soon should have our privileges restored, and the present tyrannical ministers rewarded according to their merit.

Nov. 18. We hear that Capt. Coffin from London, has brought a Diploma from the University of Edinburgh, confering on John Winthorp, Esq; Professor of Mathematicks and Philosophy at Combridge, and F. R. S. the degree of Doctor of Law.

The Fair Lady, Benjamin Smith from Liverpool, on the 10th of October lat. 42. 30. long. 40. 18. West, spoke with a Brig, from Oporto out 22 days belonging to Salem, Capt. Garrick, all well. And on October 17th in lat. 43. 03. long. 45. 55, West, spoke with the Rebecca, William Stephens. from New-York, bound to London, out 17 days all well.

We hear that a Council held at the Council Chamber last Saturday, a piece signed Mucius Scævola, published in the Massachusetts-Spy of November 14th, printed by Isaiah Thomas, was taken into consideration, when it was unanimously ordered, that the Attorney-General be directed to prosecute the Publisher thereof.

It is said the piece referred to above, (from its nature, and tendency) is the most daring production ever published in America.

We hear a number of Dr. Pemberton's hearers left his Meeting yesterday on account of his late conduct in reading the Proclamation; one in particular who has attended there 40 years.

Nov. 22. On Friday last in the afternoon his Excellency the Governor laid before the Council for their advice thereon, a paper in the Massachusetts Spy of Thursday, signed Mucius Scævola, said to contain divers seditious expressions &c. The council after debating till sun down adjourned till the next day, when they met again and sent for the printer, who in answer to the summons, told the messenger he was busy in his office and should not attend: Upon which it is said a motion was made for his commitment to prison for contempt, but did not obtain---Whether through the abundant lenity of the honourable Board, or from their having no legal authority in the case, has not yet transpired to us. The final result was, their unanimous advice to the Governor to order the King's Attorney to prosecute the Printer at Common-Law. [Boston Gaz.

I WANT Words to express the deep Sense I have of the Honour the General Assembly have been pleased to confer upon me, and beg you will assure them that I receive it with the warmest Gratitude. I am extremely happy that my well meant Services have been in any Degree acceptable to my Fellow Citizens, for whose Approbation and Regard I have the highest Value.

I beg also that you, Gentlemen, will be so good as to accept my best Thanks for the very polite Manner in which you have been pleased to convey to me the Resolution of the Assembly.

Last Tuesday Capt. Daniel Starr arrived here in 28 Days from Guadaloupe; in Lat. 26, 22, Long. 66, 44, he spoke with the Brig Charming Nancy, Capt. George Spence, from Charlestown, South-Carolina, bound to Jamaica, who on the 22d. of Sept. met with a Hurricane, when his Vessel was overset and lay 4 Hours on her Beam Ends; in which Time he lost his Main Mast, Long Boat, Cabouse, and every Thing off Deck. Capt. Starr supplied him with what Necessaries he could spare, and the Vessel proceeded on her Voyage to Jamaica.

By a Whaleman from Davis's Streights, we learn that about the first of June last, a Dutch Whaling Ship of 500 Tons, was destroyed there, by Means of an Island of Ice, which she was near, breaking from the Top and falling upon her; but the People were taken up and saved by a Fleet in Company.

POET'S CORNER.

On the DEATH of a young LIBERTINE.

FROM scenes of riot, and unmeaning noise,
Where sober Reason ne'er was known to guide,
From Dissipation, which affords no joys,
The war of Passions, and the strife of Pride,
Now manumiz'd, the son of Folly view:
Clos'd are those lips, which have so often swore;
Those boasted cheeks display a pallid hue;
Those wanton eyes must ramble now no more.
That breast is cold: The chilly hand of Death
Hath stopt life's current in their mild career;
Abrig'd the crimes of thy infectious breath,
And chain'd the tongue which never was sincere.
The sentiment obscene—the joyous toast—
The Bully's horrid oath—the Strumpet's scream—
The smutty catch—the Libertinian boast—
Are now but shadows of a fleeting dream.
Before a Court his soul must soon appear,
Where costly bribes cannot for crimes atone;
Where simple Virtue has no cause for fear,
And Vengeance is reserv'd for Vice alone!
We wish (not hope) before his soul withdrew,
That in his heart he supplicated Heaven;
That he repented, as his crimes he knew,
And by eternal Mercy was forgiven.

Arta, in Lower Albany, July 31. They write from Negropont that the peaſants of the neighbouring countries have quitted their habitations to take ſhelter in the heart of the iſland. Athens has been ſacked, and the natives of Albany, in their different incurſions, have laid waſte above a hundred leagues of ground.

LONDON,

September 10. A ſcheme is ſaid to be on foot by Lord Sandwich, for employing a number of ſeamen in our dock-yards the enſuing winter, in making ropes and other articles, which are much wanting.

Yeſterday two ſhips were taken up in the river, on government contract, to carry artillery and ſtores to Senegal.

The account in the papers of diſagreeable advices having been lately received from the Eaſt-Indies and that ſupervifors are to be again appointed, we are informed, are without foundation.

It is ſaid the army ſurgeons, who, beſides purchaſing their commiſſions, are at great expence in their education, are to have their pay raiſed to ten ſhillings a day, and their medicine money increaſed, which muſt be of infinite benefit to the ſervice, as the cheap kind of medicines they have hitherto been under the neceſſity of uſing, has been found to make great havock of the ſoldiers' conſtitutions, if not lives.

Sept. 17. Two Algerine Xebeques have taken a Daniſh frigate of 29 guns in the Mediterranean, after an engagement of one hour, and have carried her into Algiers. The Capt. and ſome of the crew eſcaped in their long boat, whilſt the Barbarians were boarding their frigate. They were ſoon after taken up by an Engliſh frigate, which went in purſuit of the Xebeques, but without being able to come up with them; the account ſays the Mediterranean ſwarms with theſe pirates.

EDINBURGH, Nov. 4. Laſt night arrived in town, Lieutenant General Monkton, Colonel of the 17th regiment of foot, at preſent contoned in the caſtle of Edinburgh.

'Tis currently reported that the Grand Signior has applied to the king of Spain for aſſiſtance, upon ſuch very advantageous terms, that it is thought he will openly join him againſt the Ruſſians in a very ſhort ſpace.

NEWPORT, Nov. 11.

Notice is given in the London papers of the 31ſt of Auguſt, that a fifth and final diſtribution of prize-money to the officers and ſoldiers who were at the ſurrender of the Havannah the 14th of Auguſt, 1762, will begin on the 28th of October: Thoſe belonging to major Gorham's corps, the Connecticut, Rhode-Iſland, New-Jerſey, New-York, &c. on the 28th of November: The ſhares not then demanded, will be ready to be paid on the firſt Thurſday in every month for three years to come, by Jonathan Garton, in Great Ruſſel-ſtreet, Bloomſbury.

The captain of a veſſel from Nantucket informs, that a whaleman lately arrived there, who was in a violent ſtorm on the 24th of Sept. near George's Banks; that after the ſtorm he came acroſs and took up two cheſts, one blue and the other green, a caſe, and ſeveral other things; and alſo ſaw one veſſel bottom upwards, and part of another; by the marks on the cheſts, &c. it is ſuppoſed one of the veſſels was a whaling ſloop from this place, Capt. Jethro Daggett, and the other from Nantucket, capt. Prink; and is more than probable, that both their crews (between 20 and 30 in number) muſt have all periſhed.

Laſt monday morning as Meſſrs. William, John, and Ebenezer Weſt, and Jeremy Phillips, of this town, were beating out of our harbour, in a two-maſt fiſh boat, againſt a freſh wind at W. S. W. and a high ſea, they ſtood in under Connanicut ſhore, a little without the Dumplings, where the rocks are pretty high, then tacked to the ſouthward, and had got about a hundred rods from the ſhore, when a hard ſaw ſtruck them, and before they could bring the boat into the wind, it preſſed her down, ſo that ſhe filled, and ſunk about 4 or 5 feet. Phillips was a good ſwimmer, and made the beſt of his way to the neareſt rocks, where he in vain attempted to get up, three or four times, when he put off, as was ſuppoſed, to ſeek a better place, was heard to hollow once, but ſoon after ſunk, and has not been heard of ſince.—William and John Weſt ſtood for another part of the ſhore not ſo bad, where, after ſeveral attempts, with much difficulty they got up.—Ebenezer Weſt, not knowing how to ſwim, kept in the boat, ſtanding upright by the maſt, expecting nothing but death, as he could but juſt keep his head above water at any time, and ſometimes the ſea would entirely bury him; but happily the boat was driven into a part of the rocks, where he got hold and ſprung out as ſoon as ſhe ſtruck, otherwiſe he muſt inevitably have been drowned; for as ſoon as he was out, on the fall of the ſea, the boat was overſet, conſiderably ſtove, and her maſts ſnapped ſhort of.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.

Capt. Lindſay, from Liverpool, on the 21ſt of laſt month, in lat. 37, 47, long. 63, 30, paſſed cloſe by a wreck of a large ſloop, New-England built; her maſt was carried away about 6 feet above the deck, and her bowſprit gone, no body on board; ſhe had a black ſtern, and bright ſides, was full of water, and had lumber ſwimming in her hatchway; her boat was gone, and every thing off her deck, except ſome of her rigging, and did not appear to have been long in that condition; a gale of wind coming on prevented his going on board, to make any further diſcovery.

The ſloop Hannah, Capt. May, which ſailed about the 12th of Sept. from St. Euſtatia for this port, is put into North-Carolina to refit, having on the paſſage, on the 20th, met with a violent gale of wind, in which a ſea ſtruck the veſſel with ſuch force, that it unſtepped the maſt, which in its fall tore up part of the deck, laid her on her beam ends, ſhifted the hold, and carried away her bowſprit; after getting clear of the maſt, they trimmed the hold, and ſhe righted; and when the gale abated they got up a jury-maſt, and arrived in Carolina 15 days afterwards.
